Club President's Column

My Dear Friends,
Compliments from the core of my heart! Let me profusely thank each and every one of you for lending your invaluable support and attending the Installation ceremony in numbers. Satisfactory attendances are also being observed in the RWMs and Club Projects. For those who could not make it, I look forward to your active participation in our forthcoming events and activities. With your active support, by now we have successfully completed three club projects – Health check-up camp on 1st July, Providing two Scholarships on 3rd July and Annakana Mid-day Meal on 21st July. One cataract surgery with free spectacles was also been sponsored on 24th July. I earnestly seek such active support & participation from your side throughout the year, so that we can take our club to newer heights. We have aimed at maximising members' participation, strengthen family bonding, engaging our children into Rotary activities, need-based humanitarian services, gradually switching over to permanent service projects and definitely enjoying Rotary through fellowship, friendship & networking. We must thank Rtn. Pratik & Sumana for coming forward and designing this colourful bulletin for us spending lot of their valuable times. One thing I would like to request you to please give due value to your time, be punctual at RWM, at projects, at programs – everywhere, it's most precious.

Best wishes to president and team for rotary year 2016-17. I am thankful to president for selected me as editor. From now onwards we will be published our monthly bulletin on first rwm of next month. Lets have a look to our installation issue.

It is myself for a tough job to write something in monthly bulletin of RCMM. At first I want to say that my writing ability is too poor, so excuse all of them who have read this column. I joined in this club on 2005 & till now serving with social works of different circle, my family also involved time to time as & when required. I am working in a Govt. Dept ; Eventually we are proud to enjoy with our club activities . Thank you all.
